The Intelligencer. WHEELING, W. VA., DECEMBER 17, 1888.

THE lively holiday trade our merchants enjoy justifies the belief that times are unusually prosperous in Wheeling.

DEMOCRATS are not pleased over the prospect that Mr. Blaine will be in General Harrison's Cabinet. Fortunately for himself and Mr. Blaine Mr. Harrison Sooner will the pathic and the owners Y., to Chicago, and while not unanimous in favor of the change, they are largely in the majority on that side. No really good objection has yet been urged against the change.

The Wheeling friends and old comrades of General "Bill" Gibson are much interested in his prospects for the Pension Commissionership. General Gibson was a brave soldier, he is a powerful orator and a tower of strength to the Republican cause. He is besides a christian gentleman, and worthy and capable to fill any office in the gift of the incoming administration.

Petty Partisauship.

The Democratic caucus action in reference we know this would not be profitable. The field is a good one for such a circuit, as the same of the same of lorsely would be say and throw us into opposition with it. By experience we know this would not be profitable. The field is a good one for such a circuit, as the

and to the admission of Dakota is a flat acknowledgement of the injustice to the course in relation to the same matter in the past. Heretofore the Democrats in Comments of the injustice to the course in relation to the same matter in the past. Heretofore the Democrats in Comments are the past. Heretofore the Democrats in Comments are the past. Heretofore the Democratic cauchy and bone are the past of the past o course in relation to the same matter in the past. Heretofore the Democrats in Congress have stubbornly fought the proposition for purely partisan reasons. They knew Dakota was entitled to Statehood; their present willingness to admit the State as a whole or as two States is an acknowledgement of this. However, they opposed the admission because Dakota was a Republican State. Had they succeeded in retaining their majority in Congress and their power in the White House the Cox resolution adopted in caucus last week never would have been considered.

quisite for the composition of two States, and consequently the opposition hith-erto manifested has been only a party move. While this has been evident to all thoughtful persons for a long time, h its acknowledgment, late as it comes, is of value, as branding the petty spirit which has dominated the party in this important matter. If the caucus had made this admission and stopped, it made this admission and stopped, it would have been some sort of atonement for the past, but such wisdom did not prevail. There was added to it the provise that the admission of Montana, Washington and New Mexico should be tied to it, and all share the same fate.

"This action is but a further exhibitio of the petty partisanship exhibited in the case of Dakots. A territory is to be erected into a State upon its own merits, never as the tail to another. If it possesses the requisites, it should always be elcomed to the sisterhood of States. If it is unable to rest its claims upon the justice of the case, those will never be strengthened by a smuggling process and were it to gain admission in such a manner, it could hope for little material

The addition of Committee on Legislation has sent to all a new State to the Union should be a labor organizations in the State the folmatter of serious concern, one to be lowing circular letter:

a new State to the Union should be a labor organizations in the State the following circular letter:

DEAR SINS AND BROS:—The Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly of Wheeling, intend to ask the Legislature of the State for suitable legislation upon matters concerning the welfare of the State for suitable legislation upon matters concerning the welfare of the state for suitable legislation upon matters concerning the welfare of the mendments to the present miners, which will be amendments to the present miners, child labor and two weeks' pay laws, as they now appear in the State the following circular letter:

DEAR SINS AND BROS:—The Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly of Wheeling, intend to ask the Legislature of the State for suitable legislation upon matters concerning the welfare of the State stand pledged by a severance of their cases, and each will feel the prouder by a special act."

None of the States named, and which the Republicans stand pledged to admit to the sisterhood of States, will feel complimented by the Democratic proposition to bring them in by an omnibus such chaff. They will realize the difference between the statesmanlike Republicans method proposed and the manner of the Democrats, which savors a little too much of ward politics.

How to Gain Flesh and Stren the Democratic position and the tardy action of the caucus, argues that the action is an exhibition of petty partisanship and says:

"The determination to vote for Dakota's admission either as a whole or as two States, according as the majority of the voters of the present territory decide, is an admission of the fact hitherto denied that is possessed of all the elements requisite for the composition of two States, according to the fact hitherto denied that is possessed of all the elements requisite for the composition of two States, according to the composition of two states, according
